

“How Copernicus helps Europe’s regions to innovate public administrations and the delivery of public policies”
3 February 2022 at 10.00-11.30 am

Draft Program:

10.00h Presentation of short Copernicus4regions-video (teaser) and wrap-up of initiative and reference to existing Copernicus4regions tools;

10.10h Presentation of key findings of the Copernicus4regions survey on latest evolution of user-stories 2019 – 2021 by Branca Cuca, Politecnico di Milano

10.20h Moderator, Jamie Berryhill (OECD) introduces into the debate and what OECD is doing in this domain and learning from the public sector innovation observatory

10.25h Political statement on public sector innovation by Markku Markkula, Regional Politician, Chair of the Espoo City Board and President of the Helsinki Region, Member of the Committee of the Regions (Member of the ENVE- Commission (Commission for Environment, Climate change and Energy) and SEDEC Commission (Commission for Social Policy,

10.35h Selected Public user shortly pitch their user-experience, service provider/researcher complements statement of public user:

- “LOCAL COPERNICUS DEMONSTRATOR IN BRITTANY” - “Regional Copernicus” by Fabrice PHUNG, GéoBretagne project leader Regional Directorate for the Environment, Development and Housing (DREAL) Brittany and Marie Jagaille, GIS BreTel (Brittany/France)
- “How the user-experience “THE POTENTIAL OF A PRE-COMMERCIAL PROCUREMENT APPROACH IN EARTH OBSERVATION” contributed to shape the Azorean Space Strategy” by Francisco Wallenstein, Government of the Azores Space Mission

Political Statement by the Secretary of Culture, Science and Digital Transition - Dr. Susete Amaro - of the Regional Government of Azores

Moderator animates audience to pose question and engage in an online discussion

- “A SPACE-BASED SOLUTION FOR OIL SPILL DETECTION” – by Anastasia Moutzidou, Centre for Research and Technology Hellas and Ioannis Liombas and Caterina Christodoulou, Thessaloniki Water Supply & Sewerage Co. S.A
- “AGRICULTURE MONITORING USING SENTINEL IMAGES” – by Emilie BERIAUX, Walloon Agricultural Research Centre

11.00h Q&A

11.10h Political statement by MEP Tsvetelina PENKOVA on public sector innovation (Member of the ITRE Committee on Industry, Research and Energy and REGI Committee on Regional Development)

11.20h Q&A

11.30h End

DRAFT